September 10, Freedom Writers (2007) PG-13

A rookie high school teacher fights to make a positive difference in the lives of a diverse group of racially charged teens. ▪ We will discuss the history of educational inequity, the state of the achievement gap in Tippecanoe County, and what we can do to help.

October 8, Remember the Titans (2000) PG

An African-American football coach hired in 1971 guides an integrated but racially polarized football team in this true story. ▪ Our discussion will center on the history of racism in this area and disparities that still exist.

November 12, Gran Torino (2008) R (Adults only)

A Korean war veteran and retired autoworker defends his neighbors, who are immigrants from Southeast Asia, from a local gang despite his initial prejudice. ▪ Discussion will focus on overcoming biases, prejudice in neighborhoods, and how we can prevent gang activity in our community.
